The proposed Bill, HR 11462, does not pose any problems for the CIA personnel policies. Agency personnel are not appointed in the competitive service and hence are not affected by the provisions of the Bill.

HR 11462 was sponsored, we understand, by DOD to provide career appointed status non competitively to a number of employees who have served long periods abroad under indefinite overseas limited appointments. CSC's opposing position, however, appears valid and probably will require regulation changes to eliminate the indefinite overseas limited appointment authority.
